Costs & Contract Information

What will it cost to bring an ICAR-US presenter to our event or hire them to consult?

Many variables influence expenses, so we recommend that you contact ICAR-US CEO Derek Peterson directly to negotiate responsibilities, rates, and rationale. Rates will be based on our current daily rate for speaking/consulting plus travel days. Expenses will be estimated as an additional cost.

What are some of the variables that can influence the cost?

Type/length of travel, number of overnight stays, weekend days involved, coordination with existing travel, number of days contracted, nature of audience, and level of capacity of the contracting organization to make change all affect the cost of services and goods.

Who pays for expenses and what expenses should we expect?

Our presenters prefer to be in control of their own travel arrangements. Standard expenses include flight or other travel reservations, lodging, car rental, cab or shuttle, and meals.

Will the ICAR-US presenter provide us with an invoice?

Yes, our presenter will send you an invoice no more than 30 days following their work with you.

How do we get a W9 for the ICAR-US presenter?

Your presenter will include a signed W9 with the invoice.

Does an ICAR-US presenter require a contract or deposit?

Generally, the invoice and a simple letter of agreement will suffice. In the case of more complex arrangements, a contract may be needed.

Can we use our standard contract?

Yes.

When does the ICAR-US presenter expect payment?

Payment is expected within 30 days.
